REMARKS

1-2+3

Some of these actions had already taken place at the time of receipt in ODDA, but interesting updates.

#3 Pls note #5 highlighted.

We discussed on 12/17 at which time you suggested that we inform Levin that a paper on subject was before judge for review but that no specific facts should be provided. Per [redacted] on 1/4, Levin isn't satisfied with response sent by Gies on 4 Dec.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM: [redacted] Congressional Affairs

SUBJECT: Items Pending Affecting Directorate of Administration.

1. This memorandum will bring you up to date on several issues pending which require my action within the next couple of weeks.

2. I talked with the Post Office and Civil Service Staff about Rep. Ford meeting with you for lunch. The staff asked that I wait until the new year but indicated that Ford will probably welcome a visit.

2. Senator Hecht, SSCI Member, and Charlie Battaglia will visit three East European countries. Their purpose is twofold: investigate DOD Humint collection capabilities and to look into embassy security. [redacted] and someone from the CI Staff will brief Battaglia on the 29th; Hecht may attend.

3. I have invited Battaglia to lunch in the EDR while he is here on the 29th. Price and I want to discuss the NAPA study and Battaglia's role in providing guidance to the IC staff on items NAPA will research and report on first. Both HPSCI and SSCI are working directly with the IC staff on the NAPA study. I no longer have any involvement. IC staff has politely but firmly advised me that they will handle all consultations with HPSCI and SSCI on NAPA. Frankly it makes me nervous, but [redacted] must get CIA's input through the IC staff.

4. I have two other Staff Dels I am working, both are looking into DOD HUMINT collection. One is headed to the Far East, the other to East Europe.

5. I still owe an answer on the "Stamp Case" to Senator Carl Levin. I have stalled, pending the DCI decision on the IG report before him now. SSCI Staffer, Holiday, is pressing for a letter explaining the actions taken against the individuals involved.
